TONGUE TIED TWIN is a Blues Trash One Man Band fighting out of Winterthur in Switzerland. The only band member is Christian Buehlmann born and raised in that same small city.

TONGUE TIED TWIN is playing the Blues, primitive Rock'n'Roll and whatever else flows naturally. His music is energy driven and heartfelt, his guitar playing and the distinctive guitar sound are the core of his one man show, while the stomping, shouting and hollering make the TONGUE TIED TWIN sound complete. Kick drum, hi-hat, tambourine, guitar, bottleneck, blues harp, kazoo, voice and megaphone are his means to fill the stage with noise.

Christian Buehlmann started to play guitar at the age of 12, always played in bands since he was 15. He learned how to really hit the guitar hard in his early 20's in a crossover punk band in Zurich. Later he learned that dedication is key and that music business executives can not be trusted during his 4 years in Cardiff in Wales UK while having a record deal with a band and enjoying numerous television appearances and live shows.

After that he was working together with a welsh songwriter and poet, learning to put meaning into things. The money run out in 2001 and Christian Buehlmann returned to Switzerland.

He bought a drum kit and his One Man Band was Born in 2004 in between painting and welding while he was renting a workshop in a old factory.

The first public one man band performance was in 2007 with a theatre group playing at a prestiges theatre festival in Zurich.

After loads of experiments the drum shrunk to just Kick, Hat and Tambourine, and the decision was made to always perform all the instruments live and simultaneously.

"TONGUE TIED TWIN's sound takes you down to the roots, you can feel that it's real."

TONGUE TIED TWIN says:

"The best thing about the One Man Band is that I am completely free on and off the stage.

Nobody tells me what to do or when to do it and I always know who to blame.

In 2008 my son was born and soon after I decided to make that long overdue step and take my band out into the world, so here I am...

TONGUE TIED TWIN, I am just one man in the band, enjoying pure freedom."
